

Unknown photographer
*Rain-writing home!: The English Women's Cricket Team
Writing Letters in the MCG Changing Rooms (detail) 1934*
Pictures Collection, nla.pic-vn3261764

Women's History Month at the National Library

The history of women can seem to be written with invisible ink. Even when recognized in their own times, women are often excluded from the history books.

In 2010, the National Library of Australia recognises the diverse voices of women in history and as recorders of history.

How to Write History that People Want to Read

Prof. Ann Curthoys and Prof. Ann McGrath discuss the influence of historical thinking, new narrative styles and digital research on writing. Gain advice on improving your history project.

Thursday 11 March, 4 pm
Conference Room, free

Book signing and refreshments to follow after each event

Memory is Another Country

For refugees, memory acquires a particular power and poignancy. Dr Nathalie Nguyen explores the experiences of Vietnamese refugee women after the Vietnam War.

Memory is Another Country: Women of the Vietnamese Diaspora launched by Prof. Mandy Thomas, Pro Vice-Chancellor (Research and Graduate Studies), Australian National University.
Wednesday 17 March, 4 pm
Conference Room, free

Early Evening Book Talk

Join celebrated author Chloe Hooper as she discusses her award-winning book, The Tall Man, and her experience of writing about the inquest into the death of Cameron Doomadgee.

Wednesday 24 March, 6 pm
Theatre, $20 / $15 Friends and concessions

Bookings
02 6262 1271 or bookings@nla.gov.au

